He was counsel for the six men who had been arrested—A. W. Hawk, C. E. Jones, C. J. Peckham, F. Hayes, A. D. Ruet, Jr., and F. M. Prootor. By his personal efforts he induced the hostile factions to effect a reconciliation before the hearing was called. Mr. Joyce addressed a letter to the counsel for the defendants offering to windraw the charge of criminal consultancy, provided the men arrested should walke the right of civil action. The terms were promptly accepted.

Senate. Opposition Purcly Partisan.

Senator Catron made the statement that the opposition to Romero was purely partisan. The following is part of clipping read into the record at the committee hearings. It is from the Alburgherque Monting Journal, a Republican paper of forty years' standing:

"Tresident Taft has again listened to the voice of the gang' in New Mexico, the position. The gangino of Marshai Forsker, and has determined to name Secundino Romero, of Las Vegas, to the position. President Taft already has the rest of Secundino Romero before had former person the position. President Taft already has the rest of last fall.

The sanpointment of Secundino Romero had to manifests clearly that the 'machine' could not have learned much from its defent of last fall.

The Sanbat Fe New Mexican, another Republican daily, made the following comment, according to the record:

"Taft's new United States marshal is a noted puglist from classic San Miguel County. It was Mr. Romero who, on the day when the new State was examing its first ballot for self-government, struck Judge E V. Long, a veteran attorney of this city and a former chief justice of New Mexico, who is seventy-five years old and who is of slight build. This was found to the position of the courty just, where Judge Long had called as an attorney of the county just, where Judge Long had called as an attorney Judge Long had called as an at

As the horizontal will be footbased by the seriously ill at the Newport residence of Mrs. George D. Widener, widow of a hero of the Titanic. The condition of the younger Widener is so grave that the family physician. Dr. Fergusson, of this city, who accompanied him to Newport, has decided that as soon as he is strong enough an operation for appendicitis will be necessary.

P. A. B. Widener, the aged financier, has been more or less ill continuously since last April, when his son, George D. Widener, and grandson, Harry Elkins Widener, were lost in the Titanic disaster. He is confined to his room now. On account of the illness of the elder Widener and his son, the social plans of the family have been materially affected, and they are sharing but little in the gayeties of the season.
